

Call for Teaching Artists

Summer Artscape 2022: Grow Wild

LV Arts is now accepting proposals for Summer Artscape 2022, a program of classes for art makers of all ages that celebrates many forms of art making. This year's theme is Grow Wild.

Grow Wild.

We're not all meant to be sown in neatly plotted rows. Inspired by Dolly Parton's song, "Wildflowers," LV Arts invites you to "Grow Wild" with us as we explore freedom of expression through the arts.

Art can act as a seed for change. It has no boundaries or limitations, much like the wildflowers in the song: "When a flower grows wild, it can always survive." Let's take time to cultivate the art inside each of us and dare to reach beyond the limits of our wildest dreams. For art-makers and art explorers, alike: It's not a matter of where or how one grows, so long as there's growth. Do not settle for ordinary. Grow Wild.

LV Arts is calling for teaching artists who are willing to explore this year's theme with a group of students. (Proposals are not required to connect to the theme; it is only a guide). Each class meets twice a week for three weeks. Weekend workshops may also be considered. There are no classes the week of July 4.

LV Artscape teachers are most often practicing artists and/or art educators. There are no licensing or certification requirements to teach Artscape workshops. However, you must have a passion and a skill for inspiring creativity in others!

Class size:

Class size is based on age and developmentally appropriate practices. Maximum enrollment of 15 students per session for classes with older students and 10-12 for younger students. Minimum enrollment of 4 students must be reached for classes to avoid cancellation. COVID-19 safety protocol will be followed based on guidance from community health experts.
